Stardust Big Band Presents An All American Jazz Concert

Kick-off Independence weekend with the best in big band jazz

Stardust Big Band will be performing a concert of American jazz on Friday, July 1, at 7 pm at Olympic Theater Arts in Sequim.

The program will include cherished favorites from the big band era through today.

Stardust's new music director, Marge Rosen of Port Angeles, has brought in several new arrangements by Horace Silver, Buddy Rich, Pat Metheny, Stevie Wonder, and Oregon composer Jessika Smith along with standards from Duke Ellington, Glenn Miller, and Count Basie.

Special guest Angie Tabor of Port Townsend will be featured on drums. Angie is a busy, percussionist and teacher. She performs throughout the region with her band, Caribe Steel Band.

Stardust big band is a 17-piece jazz orchestra based in Sequim and features

- Tess Teel, vocals
- George Radebaugh, piano
- Ed Donohue, trumpet
- Bill Cole, saxophone
- Bonnie Booth, trombone

Tickets $17.76 advance with code "USA" / $20 door / $5 Students
